HUNTINGDON, PA.

A YOUNG LADY'S SOLILOQUY.

Uselessly, aimlessly drifting through life,
What was I born for? 'For Somebody's wife'
I am told by my mother. Well, that being true,
"Somebody" keeps himself strangely from view;
And if naught but marriage will settle my fate,
I believe I shall die in an unsettled state.
For, though I'm not ugly—pray what woman is?—
You might easily find a more beautiful phiz;
And then, as for temper and manners, 'tis plain
He who seeks for perfection will seek here in vain.
Nay, in spite of these drawbacks, my heart is perverse,
And I should not feel grateful, "for better or worse,"
To take the first booty that graciously came
And offered those treasures, his home and his name.
I think, then, my chances of marriage are small,
But why should I think of such chances at all?
My brothers are all of them younger than I
Yet they thrive in the world; why not let me try?
I know that in business I'm not an adept,
Because from such matters most strictly I'm kept,
But—this is the question that puzzles my mind:
Why am I not trained up to work of some kind?
Uselessly, aimlessly drifting through life,
Why should I wait to be 'Somebody's wife?'

(From the Toledo Blade of Oct. 20, 1870.)

The New Route to St. Louis.

THE SHORT LINE, VIA DECATUR

The Toledo, Wabash & Western is one of the great railroad corporations of the country. Its eastern terminus is Toledo, but it has four terminal points in the west, viz: Keokuk, Iowa; Quincy, Illinois; Hannibal, Mo.; St Louis, Mo. At Keokuk it connects with the Keokuk Valley Road, Northwestern to Omaha, passing through the heart of Iowa. At Quincy it strikes the Hannibal and St. Joe Road, and makes all points in Kansas, and with the St. Joe and Council Bluffs Road. A direct connection with the Union Pacific and the entire State of Missouri. Leaving the Quincy line at Bluff city, a branch goes direct to Hannibal, Mo., thence over the new Hannibal and Moberly Road to Kansas City and Leavenworth, making by this route an almost air line from Toledo to Kansas City. These three terminal points control a large portion of the west.

This Company has now completed its new road from Decatur, Ill., to East St. Louis, making a direct, continuous line from the head of Lake Erie to St. Louis, without break or change of cars.

The completion of this connection is an event in the history of Railroads in this country. St. Louis is the chief city on the Mississippi, and is the point of departure for the vast territory in the west. A line of road stretching from Lake Erie to the Mississippi, passing through two of the greatest of the States, cannot but be considered as one of the great enterprises of the country, as by its new connection it transports passengers from the great Lakes to the great river without delay or change.

The Wabash route is now prepared as well for passenger traffic as any road in the United States, and the completion of this most important connection gives it a hold upon business which it has heretofore made no special effort to secure.

By this line the distance from Toledo to St. Louis is only one hundred and thirty miles. The old Wabash Road through the heart of Indiana and Eastern Illinois is used to Decatur, Illinois, where the new line branches off, passing counties and towns as follows: Macon county, chief town Decatur; Christian county, chief town Taylorville: Macoupen county, chief town Staunton; Madison county, chief town Edwardsville.

The road before reaching Decatur passes through the garden of Indiana, and the portion of Illinois that it penetrates is the best and richest. The counties we have specified are not excelled in the United States in point of wealth of soil and natural beauty.

The Company's officers have made ample arrangements to properly accommodate the immense tide of travel that will naturally seek this avenue. They have placed upon the road new and elegant passenger coaches, fitted up regardless of expense, the ruling ideas being comfort and safety. There is absolutely nothing lacking in their cars. The ornamentation is rich and chaste, the seats are not only beautiful but luxurious, and the heating apparatus is the best we have ever seen.—To so fine a point have they brought this important item that every passenger may have almost the precise temperature preferred.

The Wabash has a bridge spanning the Mississippi at Quincy, and is building two more, one at Keokuk and one at Hannibal. The Quincy bridge is a magnificent structure and the others are to be not inferior to it.

The sleeping cars now on the road are Pullman's best, but the Company are building six in their shops in Toledo that excel "Pullman's best" in almost every particular. The finishing and furnishing are superb, and every convenience that has ever been devised is made use of.

As soon as the sleeping and palace cars, now being built, are finished, the passenger from New York to any point in the West, may get in his seat at the Hudson River Depot, and never leave it till he reaches St. Louis.

The company make it a special point to have none but gentlemen in their employ. The officers of each train are intelligent, obliging gentlemen who feel that their duty is not done with the collection of tickets. The Wabash conductors have always been popular with the traveling public—now that their facilities for making those in their care comfortable have been increased they will be more so.

The track of the Wabash is in most excellent order. The road has been thoroughly ballasted, the defective ties and iron all removed, and the best and heaviest put in their place. The road is smooth over its entire length, and so well built as to make the highest rate of speed safe. The condition of the track, with the care exercised in the construction of the cars on the line, relieve the traveler of the constant feeling of danger one experiences on roads less carefully constructed and less conscientiously managed.

The new depots at St. Louis are the most commodious in that city. The company have constructed a new passenger depot at the ferry, and the Transit Company have built a new and complete equipment of Omnibuses and Baggage Wagons especially for this road, which run to every part of the city—to private houses and hotels, as well as to depots of other railroads.

At St. Louis, direct and close connections are made with the North Missouri, Missouri Pacific, Southern Pacific, Iron Mountain, and other lines to the West and Southwest, also with first class steamers for Memphis and New Orleans, and the intermediate points on the Mississippi.

We believe that the greatest part of the travel to the Great West will pass over this route—indeed we do not see how it can be otherwise. The trains from the East make close connection in the Union depot at Toledo, and from Toledo to the Mississippi there is no change whatever. The traveler whose destination is Kansas saves several hours of time by taking this route and he goes in such comfort and with such ease as to make it preferable, even though he save nothing in time thereby.

The majority of the men whose unremitting efforts have carried forward this great enterprise, are citizens of Toledo.

Hon. Azariah Boody, the President, resides in New York, and the active duties of his office devolve upon John N. Drummond, Esq., of this city, the Vice President; Geo. H. Burrows is General Superintendent, with the duties usual that important office; John B Carson is General Freight Agent, and manages the commercial interests of the company, while John U. Parsons and W. L. Malcolm have control of the passenger business of the road. To these gentlemen is due very much of the credit for the perfection of the road, and the satisfactory manner with which its business with the public is transacted.

No road in the country has in its employ more able and accomplished men, or men more quick to realize the necessities of the hour or more ready to meet them.

The traveling public in the East will do well to remember the Wabash route, when arranging for a trip to the West. There is no better road in the country, and the day is not far distant when it will be so acknowledged by traveling men.

BABY SHOW.—Memphis has been holding a fair at which one of the attractions was a baby show. Twenty-seven infants competed for the honors and for the prize, a beautiful perambulator. The blue-eyed blondes were in the majority, although there were many brunettes, dark-colored and placid. The boys seemed to be livelier than the girls. One blue-eyed lad of about ten months was very attractive, and his efforts to swallow a scarlet worsted ball four inches in diameter excited universal admiration. Health, beauty, strength and weight were considered, and half a dozen selected for a second inspection. Finally, the choice narrowed down to little Mary Ainslie, who was placed in the prize baby carriage. Then Col. J. G. Ballentine, Grand Marshal, gallantly wheeled the lucky little lady around the arena amid the huzzas of the assembled multitude, while the unlucky babies were carried solemnly out of the ring.

USEFUL HINTS.—A bit of glue dissolved in skim milk will restore crape.

Ribbons of every kind should be washed in cold suds and rinsed.

If your flat irons are rough rub them with fine salt and it will make them perfectly smooth.

If you are buying a carpet for durability choose small figures.

A bit of soap rubbed on the hinge of a door will prevent its creaking.

Scotch snuff put in holes where crickets come out will destroy them.

Wood ashes and common salt wet with water will prevent the cracking of a stove.

Strong lye put in water will make it soft as rain water.

Half a cranberry, it is said, bound on a corn will soon kill it.

☞ A school-boy does not sigh for a hard sum, when he is ciphering a hard sum.

A Tale of Horror.

Last week's Saginaw (Michigan) Republican says:

It has been well known for some time that a dirty wretched old man lived outside the city about a mile or so, in a filthy little cabin, entirely alone, and that he was a hermit. No one ever went near him, for it was said he was a magician.

His only companion was a skeleton looking dog. He came into the city sometimes to beg, and would piteously implore for money, stating that he was starving. Sometimes he would gather rags or scraps of paper and sell them. Every one supposed him to be wretchedly poor. He had an evil look, and mothers would remove their children when they saw him coming. One day last week, however, a child, the son of Mr. Abraham Skinner, went out alone to fish in the stream, and happened to wander on until, before he knew it, he came to the hovel of the old man. At first he was frightened, but seeing no one around, he plucked up courage and went nearer. Everything was silent. He went and peeped through a crack in the side of the hut.

He almost screamed at what he saw, for he beheld the old man bending over a bag of money that he was counting. There were other bags beside him containing large quantities of money. Mr. Skinner's son was so terrified that when he attempted to move he stumbled. Like lightning the old man rushed out and seized him. "Ha!" he screamed, I've caught you, have I?—You saw me, did you? Well—now you'll pay for it." And before Mr. Skinner's son could say a word, the old monster, with an awful laugh, drew out a knife, and (oh horror!) cut the child's tongue out. Then he chopped off his fingers. "Now," he said—"now you can go, for you can't tell." The poor boy ran off overcome with agony and ran to his father's house only to fill them with consternation. What was the matter with their child? He could not write for his fingers were cut.

Still the poor boy, after efforts of the most horrible pain, managed to fix a pencil between his bloody stumps of fingers, and wrote the awful tale! A party was immediately organized, and hastened to the miser's den. He was at the door as they approached, and fired a revolver at them six times, and wounded two of the party seriously.—aged villain fell, with a piercing yell, mortally wounded. "My money—my money," he moaned, "my beautiful money," and he crawled to his bags of gold and sank upon them—a corpse! Over ten thousand dollars were discovered, which were presented to the poor house and other charitable institutions. The event will never be forgotten by our citizens. The child is slowly recovering. The miser was buried the day after, and the hut was torn down.

SOLD.—The Titusville Herald relate how one of its citizens was sold at Corry not long since. It says: "During one of the late hot days as the P. and E. train stopped at the Corry depot, a jolly individual poked his head out of the car window and shouted,—"Water! water! water! Fifty cents for a pitcher of water!" A good-natured but verdant man from Titusville ran to the hotel, snatched the water pitcher and tumbler off the counter, and with astonishing rapidity passed both of them through the car window. The gentleman with the glowing countenance, who had his whisky flask on his lap, took the pitcher and tumbler, deliberately set them both on the seat beside him, then found great difficulty in looking up that delinquent fifty cents. Just as he was successful to the extent of a ten-cent stamp, the cry of the conductor was heard, "All aboard!" The ten cents was thrust into Mr. Verdant's hand, who stood aghast gazing at the glowing countenance as it whizzed away, the owner of which, bowing his head, cried out, 'Much obliged, and will pay the balance when I bring back the pitcher and tumbler. Good-by!' Amid the cheers of the crowd Verdant muttered, "Well, if that isn't a flying trick."—At this moment he found himself taken by the arm by the hotel man, who invited him to step over and settle for the tumbler and pitcher."

A HOUSE BUILT BY ONE MAN.—The South London Press tells a story of perseverance. About four years ago an eccentric personage, who follows the pursuit of bird-catching, purchased a small plot of land on the eastern side of Nunhead cemetery. Here he resolved to build a good-sized six-roomed house with his own hands. Here he at once set to work, and, strange to say, has nearly finished his task. He has been his own architect, his own bricklayer, his own laborer, his own joiner, his own plumber and glazier, and, what is still more strange, has built the house without one particle of scaffolding, and even carried his own brick from the maker by the armful as he was able to afford them. The work is said to appear very substantial, and to do him great credit. During the operation he has been living in a small brick hut, built by himself on the plot at the outset, in company with a little son and a loquacious parrot. He probably thought himself a second Crusoe on an uninhabited island, and behaved as such.

☞ "John," said a poverty-stricken man to his son, "I've made my will today."

"Ah, you were liberal, no doubt."

"Yes, John, I've come down handsome. I've willed you the whole State of Virginia—to make a living in, with the privilege of going elsewhere, if you can do better."

Origin of the Phrase "I acknowledge the Corn."

This popular phrase, it seems, was first used in Congress, being a remark made by Hon. Charles A. Wickliffe, member of Congress from Kentucky. It was in acknowledgment of the deduction of an argument for protection made by Hon. Andrew Stewart, just elected to Congress from the Westmoreland District (XXI.) of Pennsylvania. Mr. Stewart was in Congress when Henry Clay and Daniel Webster was there, and advocated protection. He recently made a speech, in which he referred to the fact. At the same time he related an incident which gives the origin of the well-known phrase, "I acknowledge the corn."

In 1828—forty-two years ago—this subject (protection) was before Congress, and we were discussing it. I was trying to show to the farmers of the country that they were purchasing foreign agricultural production in the form of goods, while they left their own production at home without a market. I said Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky sent their hay stacks, cornfields and fodder to New York and Philadelphia for sale.

Mr. Wickliffe, of Kentucky, jumped up and said:

"Why, that is absurd. Mr. Speaker I call the gentleman to order. He is stating an absurdity. We never send haystacks to New York and Philadelphia."

"Well," I said, "what do you send?"

"Why, horses, mules, cattle, and hogs."

"Well, what makes your horses, mules, cattle and hogs? You feed a hundred dollars worth of hay to a horse, you just animate and get up to the top of your haystack, and ride it to market. [Laughter.] How is it with your cattle? You make one of them carry fifty dollars worth of hay and grass to the Eastern market."

Then I came to the hog question.—Said I: "Mr. Wickliffe, you send a market; how much corn does it take at 33 cents per bushel to fatten it?"

"Why, thirty bushels."

"Then you put thirty bushels of corn into the shape of a hog and make it walk off to the Eastern market."

Mr. Wickliffe jumped up and said: "Mr. Speaker, I acknowledge the corn." [Laughter.]

Mothers, Speak Kindly.

Children catch cross words quicker than parrots, and it is a much more mischievous habit. When mothers set the example, you will scarcely hear a pleasant word among the children in their plays with each other. Yet the discipline of such a family is always weak and irregular. The children expect just so much scolding before they do anything they are bid, while in many a home, where the low, firm tone of the mother or the decided look of her steady eye is law, they never think of disobedience, either in or out of sight: O, mother, it is worth a great deal to cultivate that "excellent thing in a woman," a low sweet voice. If you are ever so much tried by the mischievous or wilful pranks of the little ones, speak low. It will be a great help to you to even try to be patient and cheerful, if you cannot succeed. Anger makes you wretched and your children also. Impatient, angry tones never did the heart good, but plenty of evil. Read what Solomon says of them, and remember he wrote with an inspired pen. You cannot have the excuse for them that they lighten your burdens any; they make them only ten times heavier. For your own, as for your children's sake, learn to speak low. They will remember that tone when your head is under the willows. So, too, will they remember a harsh and angry tone. Which legacy will you leave to your children?

TEN THOUSAND LIVES FOR A BUCKET.—About seven hundred years ago, in a country in Europe called Modena, and another country lying beside it, called Bologna, some soldiers belonging to the state of Modena took a bucket from a well in the state of Bologna and carried it away. The old bucket was of no value, and might have been replaced by a few pence, and, it is said, the soldiers carried it away for a frolic. But the people of Bologna took it as a great insult. They declared war against Modena, and had a long and bloody conflict about it. More than ten thousand human beings were butchered because of the old bucket.

☞ Why are sheep the most dissipated animals in creation? Because they gambol in their youth—spend most of their days on the turf; the best of them are blacklegs, and they are sure to be fleeced at last.

The Globe.

HUNTINGDON, PA.

Tuesday morning, Nov. 15, 1870.

WM. LEWIS, HUGH LINDSAY, } Editors.

The "Globe" has the largest number of readers of any other paper published in the county. Advertisers should remember this.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

We are now sending out bills to our subscribers, on which is written the time and amount of their subscriptions. We hope none will take offence at receiving these gentle reminders of the amount of their indebtedness, but will rather endeavor to call on us or send the amount due before the year 1870 closes, and bring or send in as many new subscriptions as they can. We will return the favor with all who get us new subscribers, according to the number they send us.

Some of our subscribers are a number of years in arrears, and we are grateful that some of these to whom we sent bills last week have responded promptly and are now square again. The largest number are about a year in arrears. This time may seem short to them, and for fear they may let another year slip round and have a larger amount to pay, we have sent them a bill. We hope they will call on us or send the money as soon as possible.

Our town subscribers will call at our office, and for their satisfaction and for ours, learn how they stand on our books, and pay up.

We will receive produce of all kinds and cash that is genuine in payment of subscriptions. The farming community have therefore a splendid opportunity to avail themselves of this offer, and either subscribe or pay up for THE GLOBE.

Yours truly,

LEWIS & LINDSAY,
Publishers.

☞ After many perplexities, such as the generality of newspapers seldom encounter, the New York Globe is established on a firm foundation, and is now dressed in a neat uniform and is spicier and newsier than ever. May we always have its visits, and our own Globe will delight to do it honor.

☞ "No man on the ticket lost a particular vote."—Republican.

It is generally believed that the Republican wanted to defeat Republican nominees last fall, that it did defeat them, and that it, as the organ of Morroll and Scott, defeated Morrell at the late election.

☞ We have never denied that the full Republican ticket, with Speer's name in place of Morrell's, was printed at the Globe office. We gave orders that any and all kinds of tickets wanted by any candidate should be printed—cash in advance. We also printed 5000 full Republican tickets, with Mr. Morrell's name. The Chairman of the County Committee didn't find our Republican tickets spurious like those he got from the Republican office.

"Dad" Lewis tries to make believe that spurious tickets were printed at this office and circulated by the chairman of the county committee, by which Woods and Beaver were to be stricken down, but 'Dad' and everybody else knows very well that he is falsifying, and it was not necessary for Judge Beaver and Mr. Woods to contradict the falsehood, as they did."—Cremer's Republican.

For cool lying Cremer can go ahead of any editor on the Juniata. The spurious tickets circulated by Mr. Blair, were printed at the Republican office—Mr. Blair has said so and will say so again. Neither Mr. Woods or Judge Beaver exonerates Cremer. It can't be did.

☞ The guerrilla organ, the Republican, seems to be slow to discover why Mr. Morrell was so badly defeated in this county. A year ago, Cremer was a candidate for the office of Prothonotary—he failed to secure a nomination—he was then ready to play disorganizer, and Mr. Morrell's patronage was handed over to the leading disorganizers, the disorganizing sheet, the Republican, was established, and several of the best Republican nominees were "slaughtered." Mr. Morrell refusing to interfere to save them. If Mr. Morrell had given his office-holders in this county notice to support Republican nominees, or expect to make room for more worthy Republicans, the Republican would not have been established and the whole Republican county ticket would have been elected. It will not do for Mr. Morrell's select friends to say that he was not responsible for the defeat of the Republican ticket a year ago. Mr. Morrell and Mr. Scott, one equally guilty with the other, were the head and front of the guerrilla movement, and they fed the flames that destroyed the Republican organization. If Mr. Scott had been a candidate in place of Mr. Merrell he would have received about the same measure of justice.

The Late Elections.

In New York, Hoffman, Democrat, is re-elected Governor by about 30,000 majority, same as two years ago. The Democrats seem to have elected fifteen out of the thirty-one Congressmen.—The Legislature is a tie—64 Republicans to 64 Democrats.

New Jersey has been completely redeemed. The Republicans elect four out of the five Congressmen—a gain of two. The Legislature is also Republican, giving us a U. S. Senator in lieu of Cattell, Republican.

Minnesota is reported to have elected two Republican Congressmen, which if true is a gain of one.

Florida has elected Conservative Congressman and Lieutenant Governor. The Legislature is Conservative.

Michigan has gone Republican by about 20,000 majority. Probably the whole six Republican Congressmen are elected.

Iowa has elected her whole six Republican Congressmen by majorities ranging from 3,000 to 10,000.

Nevada, it is believed, has been carried by the Democrats, except for Lt. Governor and member of Congress.

Arkansas will send two Democratic Congressmen certainly, and probably one Republican. The Legislature is Democratic.

Kentucky went Democratic of course, but by a reduced majority of about 15,000. It is thought one Republican Congressman is gained in the Eighth District, and also one Republican in the Ninth. About 20,000 negroes voted.

Alabama has gone Democratic, and elects three Democrats to Congress out of the six. Turner, a negro, is elected to Congress in the First district.

Kansas has gone Republican by 18,000 majority. There is only one Democrat in the Senate, and the House is four-fifths Republican.

Delaware has elected a Democratic Governor, Congressman and Legislature by a reduced majority.

Old Massachusetts re-elected all her nine Republican Representatives in Congress, with a Republican Legislature. Gov. Claflin is re-elected by about 40,000 majority with the entire Republican State Ticket. Wendell Phillips polls about 20,000 votes for Governor, mainly Republicans.

Rhode Island elects Republicans to Congress in her two districts, same as before. They are both new men.

Illinois has gone Republican by about 40,000 majority. The Congressional districts 4 Democrats, same as before.

Maryland has gone Democratic by a reduced majority—say 15,000 now against 32,000 for Seymour in 1868.—Her Congressional delegation will probably be all Democratic, as at present.

Missouri has elected the Bolter's State Ticket, mainly by Democratic votes. Finkelnburg, (bolter,) is re-elected to Congress, with Burdett and Parker, Republicans, and McCormick, Democrat. The Legislature is Democratic.

Louisiana elects the Republican State ticket and an entire delegation of Republican Congressmen. The Republican majority in the State is large.

Old Virginia elects three Republican and three Democratic Congressmen.

In Wisconsin the Democrats gain one Congressman. The delegation will stand 4 Republicans to 2 Democrats.

Tennessee elected a Democratic Governor, and Legislature, and five Democrats and three Republicans to Congress.

☞ A Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Telegraph, speaking of the late elections, says:

"It was not disguised to-day in Administration circles that the disaster is serious, and the President feels keenly disappointed and mortified at the general political aspect of the country."

The "situation" is bad everywhere, and the President may very well feel mortified. The President has been deceived by political tricksters—they have abused his confidence, deceived the people, and the people are quietly speaking in thunder tones where they can be heard. We don't know what excuse Messrs. Scott and Morrell will have to offer for Mr. Morrell's defeat in this county. We would like to be on hand to hear it. It could be given short, thus: "A year ago we used the patronage you gave us to defeat several good Republican nominees—at the late election those candidates and their friends retaliated and socked us, and while we admit the blow to be a heavy one, we could not expect it to be any lighter from men free from the control of a few political nobodies in Huntingdon."

One of the Building Associations at Wilmington recently lost $1000 by delay in recording a mortgage. The borrower afterwards obtained money from another party to whom he also gave a mortgage, and it being recorded at once, it became the first lien, so that, on the property being sold by the sheriff, it absorbed the entire proceeds.

Clayton Coursan, seventeen years of age, left Altoona a few days since, and was found on the track near Westchester Intersection, his body terribly mangled, cut in twain, and having one arm severed from his body. His parents live at Bolivar, Westmoreland Co.

Teachers' Institute of Huntingdon Co.

The Huntingdon County Teachers' Institute for the present year will be held in the Court House, in the boro. of Huntingdon, commencing on Monday, December 26th, at 2 o'clock, p. m., and closing on Friday, December 30th.

Teachers, School Directors, and friends of education are respectfully invited to attend.

The law evidently contemplates that Directors shall grant teachers the time to attend the institute and count the same for teaching. This, considering the small compensation most of our teachers receive and the expense they incur while attending the institute, is nothing more than right; but should directors, under a mistaken view refuse to grant the time, this should afford teachers no pretext for not attending, for the teacher who properly realizes the dignity and responsibility of his calling will not hesitate to make large sacrifices to promote the great cause of popular education. If every teacher in our county were to set earnestly about the work of self improvement there would soon be less complaining of low wages and a brighter day would dawn upon our schools.

This year it is intended that the work shall be done chiefly by our own teachers and it is for them to say whether it shall be done or not.

EXERCISES.

These will consist of instruction in the branches taught in our common schools, lectures, essays, &c.

Orthography and Orthoephy will be presented by R. S. Henderson.

Writing, by W. S. McPherran.

English Grammar, by Prof. H. L. Atkinson.

Elocution, by Prof. J. W. Shoemaker, of Philadelphia.

The following subjects will be discussed:

1. Should physical culture be made one of the regular branches of study in our common schools?

2 How can pupils best be taught good manners?

3. Should singing be one of the regular branches taught in school?

4. Are our courses of study and methods of instruction sufficiently practical?

5. What disposition should a teacher make of his time out of school-hours?

6. What motives and incentives to study ought to be annexed to [illegible]

7. Upon what do the pecuniary prosperity of a nation depend on its intelligence?

8. Are public school examinations and exhibitions advisable?

9. What is the true philosophy of illustration?

10. What are prominent causes of failure in teaching?

Messrs. Taylor and Schock are requested to open the discussion on the first named question; Rev A L Guss the second, Mr Woldman the third, Prof J A Stephens the fourth, Mr Michiner the fifth, Mr Kauffman the sixth, Messrs J P Giles and I J Atkinson the seventh, Messrs J R Baker and S D Caldwell the eighth, Messrs Cloyd, Griffin, Lightner and W R Baker the tenth.

EVENING LECTURE.

Prof Shoemaker will deliver his inimitable lecture, "How to Say things," and he will also give readings from standard authors. Other lecturers may be expected.

ESSAYS

Several essays will be read by teachers during the meeting of the institute

ROLL CALL.

The roll will be called morning and afternoon, and a correct account of the attendance of teachers will be kept and certificates of the same will be forwarded to the officers of the school boards that grant teachers either the whole or a part of the time to attend.

ACCOMMODATION, &c.

Messrs Long, Fleming and Thomas have each agreed to board teachers, directors and others attending the institute, $1 per day. As the institute is to be held on holiday week excursion tickets can probably be obtained at most points on the railroads.

MUSIC, &c.

The pupils of the Cassville Orphan School will enliven the exercises with vocal and instrumental music.

It is expected that ministers of the different denominations will be present to conduct the devotional exercises and to take part in the discussions.

It is expected that teachers generally will come prepared to take part in the exercises. While some have been named to open the discussions it is by no means intended to exclude any from taking an active part.

DIRECTOR'S DAY.

Thursday will be director's day.—The following topics will be discussed:

1st. Teacher's Salaries—what should be the basis of grading them?

2nd. Can graded schools be established in rural districts to a good advantage?

It is hoped that the directors of our county will manifest their interest in the welfare of our schools of which they are special guardians, by being present and taking an active part in the discussions.

The committee on permanent certificates will be elected on Monday afternoon. Professional certificates will be presented to teachers entitled to receive them on Friday.

D. F. TUSSEY,
County Superintendent.

THANKSGIVING.

By the President of the United States: A Proclamation.

Whereas, It behooves a people sensible of their dependence on the Almighty, publicly and collectively to acknowledge their gratitude for his favors and mercies, and humbly beseech for their continuance; and

Whereas, The people of the United States, during the year now about to end, have special cause to be thankful for the general prosperity, abundant harvests, exemption from pestilence, foreign war and civic strife; now, therefore, be it known, that I, Ulysses S. Grant, President of the United States, concurring in any similar recommendation from chief magistrates of States, do hereby recommend to all citizens to meet in their respective places of worship on Thursday, the 24th day November next, there to give thanks for the bounty of God during the year about to close, and to supplicate for its continuance hereafter.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this 21st day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and of the independence of the United States the ninety-fifth.

U. S GRANT.

By the President,
HAMILTON FISH, Secretary of State.

Proclamation from the Governor.

In continuance of an honored State and National custom, and in devout acknowledgment of human dependence upon Almighty favor, I do hereby appoint Thursday, the twenty-fourth day of November next, as a day of general Thanksgiving and praise, being the same day, and for the same ends and uses, set forth by his excellency, the President of the United States, in his proclamation of the 21st instant.

Pennsylvania, unsurpassed in blessings, should not be surpassed by any in acknowledging her gratitude to God. Let us, then, as citizens of the Commonwealth, abstain, as far as possible, from our usual avocations on that day, and assemble in our respective places of worship; and let us there and in the festivities of our assembled families at our cherished homes, rejoice in the goodness of God, and render thanks to Him for His lovingkindness and His abundant mercy toward us. Let our thanksgiving and our praise find expression in dedicating the day to deeds of benevolence and charity, and in ministering to and alleviating the wants of the poor, the needy and the suffering, so that all may "rejoice and be exceeding glad." "To do good and distribute, forget not; for with such sacrifices God is well pleased."

Let us invoke divine favor upon our beloved State and Nation, and pray that all who are called to administer their governments may be actuated by the "spirit of wisdom and understand[illegible] the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord."

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this twenty-eighth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and of the Commonwealth the ninety-fifth.

JOHN W. GEARY.

By the Governor:
F. JORDAN,
Sec'y. of the Commonwealth

☞ Mr. Beecher, in the Christian Union, gives the following lesson to American students, from the war in France, which is well-timed and important in every particular:

"Elated by our great prosperity, we are in no small danger of resting contentedly in present good fortune when the present foundations are not stable. We are never tired of glorifying our Republican Government. But there are grave evils and dangers in our political system which, if not remedied, may one day wreck the ship that now sails so smoothly. Our nation is so strong in its youth and its abundant resources and the absence of dangerous neighbors, that it tolerates easily faults in its methods which it will not always be able to bear so lightly. We entrust the machinery of government to very incompetent hands, through a wretched civil service system. Our taxes are levied and our debt is managed with a lofty disregard of political economy. The legislation in our greatest States is controlled by corruption and fraud. The country is ruled by politicians and not by statesmen. To pass those things over lightly, and flatter ourselves that as the greatest nation on earth, we have reached the summit of political excellence, that we are above danger and above the need of learning; this is to be guilty of just such self-deception and willful blindness as France has exemplified and is suffering."

DR. SCHENCK advises Consumptives to go to Florida in the Winter.

Having for the last thirty-five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung disease and consumption, I feel that I understand fully the course that ought to be pursued to restore a tolerably bad case of diseased lungs to healthy soundness. The first and most important step is for the patient to avoid taking cold, and the best of all places on this continent for this purpose in winter, is Florida, well down in the State, where the temperature is regular, and not subject to such variations as in more Northern latitudes. Palatka is a point I can recommend. A good hotel is kept there by Waterman. Last winter I saw several persons there whose lungs had been badly diseased, but who, under the healing influence of the climate and my medicines, we're getting well.

One hundred miles further down the river is a point I would prefer to Palatka, as the temperature is more even and the air dry and bracing. Wenonaville and Enterprise are located there. I should give a decided preference to Wenonville. It is two miles from river or lake, and it seems almost impossible to take cold there. The tables in Florida might be better, and patients complain at times but that is good sign, as it indicates a return of appetite, and when this is the case they general ly increase in flesh, and then the lungs must heal.

Jacksonville, Hibardia, Green Cove, and many other places in various parts of Florida, can be safely recommended to consumptives in winter. My reasons for saying so are that patients are less liable to take cold there than where there is a less even temperature, and it is not necessary to say that when a consumptive person exposes himself to frequent colds he is certain to die shortly. Therefore my advice is, go well down into the State out of the reach of prevailing east winds and fogs. Sackonville, or almost any other of the localities I have named, will benefit those who are troubled with a torpid liver, a disordered stomach, deranged bowels, sore throat or cough, but for those whose lungs are diseased a more southern point is earnestly recommended.

For fifteen years prior to 1869, I was professionally in New York, Boston, Baltimore and Philadelphia every week, where I saw and examined on an average five hundred patients a week. A practice so extensive, embracing every possible phase of lung disease, my caution in regard to taking cold. A person may take vast quantities of "Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills," and yet die if he does not avoid taking cold.

In Florida, nearly everybody is using Schenck's Mandrake Pills, for the climate is more likely to produce bilious habits than more northern latitudes. It is a well established fact that natives of Florida rarely die of consumption, especially those of the southern part. On the other hand, in New England, one third, at least of the population die of this terrible disease. In the middle States it does not prevail so largely, still there are many thousands of cases there. What a vast percentage of life would be saved if consumptives were as easily alarmed in regard to taking fresh cold as they are about scarlet fever, small pox, &c. But they are not. They take what they term a little cold, which they are credulous enough to believe will wear off in a few days. They pay no attention to it, and hence it lays the foundation for another and another still, until the lungs are diseased beyond all hope for cure.

My advice to persons whose lungs are affected even slightly is, to lay in a stock of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup Schenck's Seaweed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills and go to Florida. I recommend these particular medicines because I am thoroughly acquainted with their action. I know that where they are used in strict accordance with my directions they will do the work that is required. This accomplished, nature will do the rest.—The physician who prescribes for cold cough or night-sweats, and then advises the patient to walk or ride out every day, will be sure to have a corpse on his hands before long.

My plan is to give my three medicines, in accordance with printed directions, except in some cases where a freer use of the Mandrake Pills is necessary. My object is to give tone to the stomach—to get up a good appetite. It is always a good sign when a patient begins to grow hungry. I have hopes of such. With a relish for food and the gratification of that relish comes good blood and with it more flesh, which is closely followed by a healing of the lungs. Then the cough loosens and abates, the creeping chills and clammy night-sweats no longer prostrate and annoy, and the patient gets well provided he avoids taking cold.

Now there are many consumptives who have not the means to go to Florida. The question may be asked, is there no hope for such? Certainly there is. My advice to such is, and ever has been, to stay in a warm room during the winter, with a temperature of about seventy° which should be kept regularly at this point, by means of a thermometer. Let such a patient take his exercise within the limits of the room by walking up and down as much as his strength will permit, in order to keep up a healthy circulation of the blood. I have cured thousands by this system, and can do so again. Consumption is as easily cured as any other disease if it is taken in time, and the proper kind of treatment is pursued. The fact stands undisputed on record that Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Mandrake Pills, and Seaweed Tonic have cured very many of what seemed to be hopeless cases of consumption. Go where you will, you will be almost certain to find some poor consumptive who has been rescued from the very jaws of death by their use.

So far as the Mandrake Pills are concerned, everybody should keep a supply of them on hand. They act on the liver better than calomel, and leave none of the hurtful effects behind. In fact they are excellent in all cases where a purgative medicine is required. If you have partaken too freely of fruit and diarrhœa ensues, a dose of the Mandrakes will cure you. If you are subject to sick headache, take a dose of the Mandrakes and they will relieve you in two hours. If you would obviate the effect of a change of water, or the too free indulgence in fruit, take one of the Mandrakes every night or every other night, and you may then drink water and water melons, pears, apples, plumbs, peaches or grapes, without the risk of being made sick by them. They will protect those who live in damp situations against chills and fevers. Try them. They are perfectly harmless. They can do you good only.

I have abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients at my office, No. 15 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, examination with the Respirometer will be charged five dollars. The Respirometer declares the actual condition of the lungs, and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not. But I desire it distinctly understood that the value of the medicines depends entirely upon their being taken strictly according to directions.

In conclusion, I will say that when persons take my medicines and their systems are brought into a healthy condition thereby, they are not so liable to take cold, yet no one with diseased lungs can bear a sudden change of atmosphere without the liability of grantes or less irritation of the bronchial tubes.

Full directions in all languages accompany my medicines, so explicit and clear that any one can use them without consulting me, and can be bought from any druggist.

THE COLEMAN CHILDREN.—This Juvenile Dramatic, Burlesque and Musical Combination and Silver Cornet Band, exhibited in Yenter's Hall, in this place, three evenings, and each time the hall was well filled. We doubt whether the performances of this excelsior juvenile troupe can be excelled by any adult organization, as their pieces were performed in a manner that was very creditable to the young folks, and elicited repeated applause. Little Lewy is par excellent in her character of the comic, and won great and deserved praise in having done so well. Little Alice and Little Clara also did well, and indeed all the performers sustained their part so well that the entertainments were splendid, and the Combination may be called first class. We bespeak for them a crowded house wherever they go, and hope they may return again to afford all our citizens an opportunity of hearing them.

A WORD TO BUSINESS MEN.—Many of our merchants and business men generally have adopted the plan suggested by the government of having their card appear on the corner of every envelope used in the transaction of their business, directing the postmaster to return in a certain number of days if not called for. The advantages of this plan are so great, that it is strange more persons have not adopted it. Millions of letters are annually lost which might be returned to the writers, if this simple envelope system were in operation. Vexatious delays and misunderstandings in business matters are often clearly traceable to the miscarriage of letters, the writers having no means of at once determining whether they have reached their destination. Envelopes with cards may be had at this office. If merchants prefer, however, they can purchase their envelopes wholesale, and have their cards printed on them at a trivial cost. By using card envelopes they will save themselves and the post office employees much unnecessary trouble.

A REMARKABLE DEATH.—Mrs. Mariah Clark, a resident of this borough, and wife of Mr. W. Clark, the gentlemanly baggage-master and express agent of the Broad Top Railroad, died on Friday evening last. On Tuesday evening about ten o'clock she went to bed, after having conversed to her youngest daughter, who had been hurt a few days previous. Shortly afterwards her husband went to her and found her breathing heavily. He called her but she gave no answer, when the physician was sent for, who pronounced she had an attack of apoplexy. She remained in this unconscious state until Friday evening—three days—when she expired. She was buried on Sunday, and her remains were followed to the cemetery by a large concourse of sympathizing friends.

HIGH-NO.—We were lamenting our unfortunate lot that other printers could get presents and live on the top of the pile, and feeling very melancholy about it, when who should greet us but our friend Mr. Jackson Lamberson, the wholesale and retail tobacco dealer, who handed us a box of the choicest cigars in the shop. This present knocked all our melancholy into smoke, and we have been feeling good ever since. Jack is a friend of the printer, believes in printer's ink, and withal is a clever gentleman, and we advise retail tobacco dealers to give him a call. He sells the genuine brands at a moderate figure. His store is on Montgomery street, next door to the Union Bank.

☞ Our young friend, William Poulton, since the death of his father, has had charge of the Billiard Saloon at Harrisburg. We are glad to learn he is reciving a liberal encouragement from the citizens, which we hope he will continue to merit not only from them but also from all lovers of the game in this and other places, whenever they visit the State Capital.

A BOOK OF RARE INTEREST.—We can hardly conceive of more entertaining reading for the long winter evenings than the new book, Belden: The White Chief. It reminds one of Robinson Crusoe, but is certainly more valuable reading, as it presents facts and not fiction.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

At a meeting of the members of the Huntingdon County Bar, held on the morning of the 9th inst., for the purpose of adopting appropriate resolutions, in consequence of the death of their fellow member RUDOLPH MCMURTRIE, Esq., a committee, composed of J. Sowell Stewart, J. Hall Musser, and K. Allen Lovell, Esqs., was appointed on resolutions.

The committee soon reported to the meeting the following resolutions which were adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased Divine Providence to sever the cord that bound our late brother, Rudolph McMurtrie, to things earthly; and to translate his spirit from a world of care and trouble;

Resolved, That while deploring the untimely death of this young, generous, kind and truthful man, we tender to her, who was his faithful and loving wife, our condolence in her great bereavement.

Resolved, That as members of the Bar we will attend his funeral in a body.

Resolved, That a copy of the proceedings of this meeting be presented to the family of the deceased, and that copies be furnished to the town papers for publication.

MEMOIR.

MR PETER ETNIER was born June 23d, 1788, and died October 13th, 1870, aged 82 years, 3 months and 20 days. He was born in Germany Valley, Shirley township, Huntingdon county, Pa., and died within one mile of his birth-place, at the residence of his oldest son. In the fall of the year 1840 at a camp-meeting in Traugh Creek Valley he gave his heart to God, and joined the Methodist E. Church, and lived a consistent life. He was the subject of affliction for some years before he died, but in all these infirmities he could say, "not my will but thine, O, Lord, be done." He leaves many relatives and friends to mourn his departure from this life, but their loss is his gain. A few days before his death he spoke freely of his hope of heaven.

How sweet the hour of closing day,
When all is peaceful and serene,
And when, the sun, with cloudless ray,
Sheds mellow lustre o'er the scene.
Such is the Christian's closing hour;
So peacefully he sinks to rest;
When faith endued from heaven with power,
Sustains and cheers his languid breast,
Who would not wish to die like those
Whom God's own spirit deigns to bless?
To sink into that soft repose,
Then wake to perfect happiness. J. M.

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS

Hundreds of Thousands

Bear testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE

FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, Free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and A LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell.

$100 will be given for an incurable case, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, or the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia, or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood, whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

ROSADALIS

THE Great American Health Restorer, purifies the blood and cures Scrofula, Syphilis, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Diseases of Women and all Chronic Affections of the Blood, Liver and Kidneys. Recommended by the Medical Faculty and thousand of our best citizens.

Read the testimony of Physicians and patients who have used Rosadalis sent for our Rosadalis Guide to Health or Almanac for this year, which we publish for gratuitous distribution; it will give you much valuable information.

Dr. R. W. Carr, of Baltimore says:

I take pleasure in recommending your Rosadalis as a very powerful alterative. I have seen it used in two cases with happy results—one in case of secondary syphilis, in which the patient pronounced himself cured after having taken five bottles of your medicine. The other is a case of scrofula of long standing, which is rapidly improving under its use, and the indications are that the patient will soon recover. I have carefully examined the formula by which your Rosadalis is made, and find it an excellent compound of all alterative ingredients.

Dr. Sparks, of Nicholasville, Ky., says he has used Rosadalis in cases of scrotula and secondary Syphilis with satisfactory results—as a cleaner of the blood I know no better remedy.

Samuel G. McFadden, Murfreesboro' Tennessee, says:

I have used seven bottles of Rosadalis, and am entirely cured of Rheumatism; send me four bottles, as I wish it for my brother, who has scrofulous sore eyes.

Benjamin Bechtol, of Lima, Ohio, writes, I have suffered for twenty years with an inveterate eruption over my body; a short time since I purchased a bottle of Rosadalis and it effected a perfect cure.

Rosadalis is sold by John Read and S. S. Smith, Huntingdon, Pa., and Druggists generally.

WHAT I KNOW OF FARMING.

BY HORACE GREELEY.

XXXVII.

FENCES AND FENCING.

Though I have already indicated, incidentally, my decided objections to our prevalent system of Fencing, I deem the subject of such importance that I choose to discuss it directly.—Excessive fencing is peculiarly an American abuse, which urgently cries for reform.

Solomon Robinson says the fence tax is the heaviest of our farmers' taxes. I add, that it is the most needless and indefensible.

Highways we must have, and people must traverse them; but this gives them no right to trample down or otherwise injure the crops growing on either side. In France, and other parts of Europe, you see grass and grain growing luxuriantly up to the very edge of the beaten track, with nothing like a fence between them.—Yet those crops are nowise injured or disturbed by wayfarers. Whoever chooses to impel animals along those roads must take care to have them completely under subjection, and must see that they do no harm to whatever grows by the wayside.

In this country, cattle-driving, except on a small scale, and for short distances, has nearly been superseded by railroads. The great droves formerly reaching the Atlantic sea board on foot, from Ohio or further West, are now huddled into cars and hurried through in far less time, and with less waste of flesh; but they reach us fevered, bruised, and every way unwholesome. Every animal should be turned out to grass, after a railroad journey of more than twelve hours, and left there a full month before he is taken to the slaughter-pen. We must have many more deaths per annum in this city, than if the animals on which we subsist were killed in a condition which rendered them fit for human food.

Ultimately, our fresh Beef, Mutton, and Pork, will come to us from the Prairies in refrigerating cars—each animal having been killed while in perfect health, unfevered and untortured by days of cramped, galled, and thirsty suffering, on the cars. This will leave their offal, including a large portion of their bones, to enrich the fields whence their sustenance was drawn and from which it should never be taken. The cost of transporting the meat, hides and tallow, in such cars, would be less than that of bringing through the animals on their legs; while the danger of putrefaction might be utterly precluded.

But to return to fencing:

Our growing plants must be preserved from animal ravage; but it is most unjust to impose the cost of this protection on the growers. Whoever chooses to rear or buy animals must take care that they do not infest and despoil his neighbors. Whoever sees fit to turn animals into the street, should send some one with them who will be sure to keep them out of mischief, which browsing young trees in a forest clearly is.

If the inhabitants of a settlement or village surrounded by open prairie, see fit to pasture their cattle thereon, they should send them out each morning in the keeping of a well-mounted herdsman, whose duty should be summed up in keeping them from evil-doing by day and bringing them safely back to their yard or yards at nightfall.

Fencing bears with special severity on the pioneer class who are least able to afford the outlay. The "clearing" of the pioneer's first year in the wilderness being enlarged by ax and fire needs a new and far longer environment next year; and so through subsequent years until clearing is at an end. Many a pioneer is thus impelled to devote a large share of his time to fencing; and yet his crops often come to grief through the depredations of his own neighbors breechy cows.

Fences produce nothing but unwelcome bushes, briars and weeds. So far as they may be necessary, they are a deplorable necessity. When constructed where they are not really needed, they evince costly folly. I think I could point out farms which would not sell to-day for the cost of rebuilding their present fences.

We cannot mow open drains or ditches serve for fences in this country, as they sometimes do in milder and more equable climates, because our severe frosts would heave and crumble our banks if nearly perpendicular, sloping them at length in places so that animals might cross them at leisure. Nor have we, so far north as this city, had much success with hedges, for like reason. There is scarcely a hedge-plant at once efficient in stopping animals and so hardy as to defy the severity, or rather the caprice, of our winters. I scarcely know a hedge which is not either inefficient or too costly for the average farmer; and then a hedge is a fixture, whereas we often need to move or demolish our fences.

Wire fences are least obnoxious to this objection; they are very easily removed; but a careless teamster, a stupid animal, or a clumsy friend, easily makes a breach in one that is not so easily repaired. Of the few wire fences within my knowledge, hardly one has remained entire and efficient after standing two or three years.

Stone walls, well built on raised foundations of dry earth, are enduring and quite effective, but very costly.—My best have cost me at least $5 per rod, though the raw material was abundant and accessible. I doubt that any good wall is built, with labor at present prices, for less than $3 per rod. Perhaps I should account this costliness a merit, since it must impel farmers to study how to make few fences serve their turn.

Rail fences will be constructed only where timber is very abundant, of little value, and easily split. Whenever the burning of timber to be rid of it has ceased, there the making of rail fences must be near its end.

Where fences must still be maintained, I apprehend that posts and boards are the cheapest material.—Though pine lumber grows dear, Hemlock still abounds, and the rapid destruction of trees for their bark to be used in tanning must give us cheap hemlock boards throughout many ensuing years. Spruce, Tamarack, and other evergreens from our northern swamps, will come into play after hemlock shall have been exhausted.

As for posts, Red Cedar is a general favorite; and this tree seems to be rapidly multiplying hereabout. I judge that farmers who have it not, might wisely order it from a nursery and give it an experimental trial. It is hardy; it is clean; it makes but little shade; and it seems to fear no insect whatever. It flourishes on rocky, thin soils; and a grove of it is pleasant to the sight—at least, to mine.

Locust is more widely known and esteemed; but the borer has proved destructive to it on very many farms, though not on mine. I like it well, and mean to multiply it extensively by drilling the seed in rich garden soil and transplanting to rocky woodland, when two years old. Sowing the seed among rocks and bushes I have tried rather extensively, with poor success. If it germinates at all the young tree is so tiny and feeble that bushes, weeds and grass, overtop and smother it.

That a post set top-end down will last many years longer than if set as it grew, I do firmly believe, though I cannot attest it from personal observation. I understand the reason to be this: Trees absorb or suck up moisture from the earth; and the particles which compose them are so combined and adjusted as to facilitate this operation. Plant a post deeply and firmly in the ground, butt end downward, and it will continue to absorb moisture from the earth as it did when alive; and the post, thus moistened to-day and dried by wind and sun to-morrow, is thereby subjected to more rapid disintegration and decay than when reversed.

My general conclusion is that the good farmer will have fewer and better fences than his thriftless neighbor, and that he will study and plan to make fewer and fewer rods of fence serve his needs, taking care that all he retains shall be perfect and conclusive. Breechy cattle are a sad affliction alike to their owner and his neighbor; and shaky, rotting, tumble-down fences, are justly responsible for their perverse education.

ADDRESS

TO THE

NERVOUS AND DEBILITATED,

WHOSE SUFFERINGS HAVE BEEN PROTRACTED

FROM HIDDEN CAUSES, AND WHOSE

CASES REQUIRE

PROMPT TREATMENT.

TO RENDER EXISTENCE DESIRABLE

If you are suffering, or have suffered, from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urine organs, or your kidneys, get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky or flocky, or is it ropy on settling? Or does a thick skum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling on this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you rest less nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver complaint?

Now, reader, self-abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering, successful business men are always those whose organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, of nervousness, of palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become sad and discouraged, they are always polite and pleasant in company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or any other meanness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflated by running to excess. These will not only ruin their constitution, but those they do business with or for.

How many men, from badly cured diseases, from the effects of self abuse and excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in these organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease—idiocy, lunacy, paralysis, spinal affections, suicide, and almost every form of disease humanity is heir to—and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have doctored for all but the right one.

COUGHS, SORE THROAT, ETC

No medicine or treatment can excel the powerful curative power of

DR. SIMMS'

WHITE PULMONIC BALSAM.

It cures with a rapidity unequalled by any other remedy offered for throat and lung diseases. It is recommended by over 2,000 persons in Wilmington, and hundreds in Philadelphia, Baltimore and other cities and communities throughout the country. Mr. Pennington, of Wilmington, Illinois, writes that there is not (with a few exceptions) a family in that city who will be without it if possible to procure it. Such is its popularity wherever it is known—and this popularity arises from the fact that it universally cures all who use it. There is no case of

COUGHS, COLDS, SORE THROAT,

ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, CROUP,

BLOOD SPITTING, HOARSENESS, and even Pulmonary Consumption, where the system is not broken down with the wear of the disease, or pretended medicine, or inexperienced advice, that this Balsam will not cure if carefully used according to directions. We guarantee it all we represent it be, and invite a trial from the afflicted everywhere. Price 50 cts., medium size, and $1 for large size bottles. Prepared only by
